

Holy Trinity Armenian Church of Cheltenham, PA
announces the publication of Communicate in Holiness: Reflections on the Divine Liturgy
by Deacon Albert A. Keshgegian

A wonderful new user-friendly book on the Divine Liturgy— perfect for parish leaders, Sunday school teachers and anyone interested in deepening their understanding of this familiar, yet mysterious, worship experience of Armenian Christians. Senior deacon Albert Keshgegian presents 32 reflections, each including the English text of the Soorp Badarak, its significance, and a personal life application message for our everyday lives. Also ideal for teenagers and non-Armenian spouses eager to learn more about the Armenian Church. Color photos; 77 pages.

“It fills my soul as I read it, now learning what is actually happening during the Liturgy...It has opened the doors for me and provided such meaning. This is so well written and should be distributed to everyone.”

-- Blanche Aboyan, Newtown Square, PA

“This book is indeed a valuable communicative asset. I will use it in teaching our parishioners the lessons within. I have already shared this book with one parishioner and he has given wonderful comments.

-- Rev. Fr. Vart Gyoalyan, Pastor,
Armenian Church at Hye Pointe, Bradford, MA
