

Calling for Holy Trinity Volunteers

Saturday, November 9, 2019

We are called to serve all people both within our church and in the world. Christ came not to be served, but to serve, teaching us to do the same. One important expression of service is feeding the hungry.

– from the Mission Statement of the Diocese of the Armenian Church

You are invited to serve Christ by feeding the hungry through

Aid for Friends . . .

What is Aid for Friends?

The mission of AID FOR FRIENDS is to alleviate the hunger and loneliness of isolated home-bound individuals living throughout the Philadelphia region. Their volunteers make weekly visits to shut-ins, providing home-cooked meals and life-enhancing friendship. All their services are provided free of charge. Most of the individuals they serve are seniors who could not otherwise remain in their homes without the support of the meals provided by AID FOR FRIENDS.

Who prepares the meals they deliver?

We do . . . along with other local churches and organizations. For many years, a small group of our parishioners, organized by Jeanette Der Hagopian, has been preparing nutritious meals, which are picked up by AID FOR FRIENDS and then lovingly distributed.

What can I do?

We don't want your check – we want you! You are invited to join us on Saturday, November 9 to prepare the meals that will be served to the hungry and lonely in our community. Arrive with your apron at 10:00a – we'll provide the coffee!

Contact Jeanette Der Hagopian at **choirboss@hotmail.com** or 215-672-4188 by November 3.

*Sponsored by the Adult Christian Education Ministry of Holy Trinity Armenian Church, Cheltenham, PA
Rev. Fr. Hakob Gevorgyan, Pastor
www.holytrinity-pa.org*